

Cycle of Freshness

UNIVEG Austria was originally founded in 1922 under the name Ahorner. Its central office has been located in Vienna since the 1970's. Part of the UNIVEG Group since 2008, it is a reliable service provider and strategic business partner for the Austrian fresh produce industry.

ACTIVITIES

Procurement, storage, packing, ripening and distribution services

KEY COMPANY FACTS

- UNIVEG Austria serves wholesale, retail, foodservice and catering customers with a full range of imported and home-grown products.
- The strategically favourable position of the company's Viennese warehouses offers an efficient supply base for all of Austria, as well as its neighbouring Eastern European countries.
- With a cold storage capacity of approximately 6,500 square metres, UNIVEG Austria handles about 50,000 tonnes of fruits and vegetables every year.
- The biggest product category is bananas – 20,000 cartons every week of first class product
- Around 60 staff members are available 7 days a week. They work to provide customers with optimum sourcing solutions and top level service, with the flexibility needed to fulfil every customer's demands.
- IFS, HACCP and BIO certified, and a supplier of Fairtrade products year-round