

Cycle of Freshness

Established in 2008 in Swedesboro, New Jersey, USA, UNIVEG Logistics America is one of the largest fresh produce cold storage and repacking facilities in southern New Jersey and the Metro Philadelphia area and is a service provider for shippers, retailers, and growers. UNIVEG Logistics America is strategically located within close proximity of the major fresh produce ports of entry in the northeastern USA.

ACTIVITIES

UNIVEG Logistics America is a service provider specializing in logistics, cold storage, repacking, inventory management, consolidation and distribution of fresh produce.

KEY COMPANY FACTS

- Service provider for fresh produce logistical activities, including: shipping and receiving, logistics, warehousing, cold storage, packing and repacking, quality control, inventory and product management, product consolidation and distribution.
- Advantageously located within a 1 day transport of 14 major US states.
- All products are fully compliant with food safety regulations and processes are certified through Primus Labs.
- Primary focus is on quality, customer needs/product specifications and efficiency of services.