

LOGIDIS

Logidis is located in Almería, one of the main production areas of Spain. It joined the UNIVEG Group in 2000, at the same time as Grupo YES. The most important activity of Logidis is national and international transport of fruit and vegetables.

ACTIVITIES

Warehouse management, national and international transport and distribution of fresh, frozen and processed products, and consolidation services for transport routes from Spain to Europe).

KEY COMPANY FACTS

- Logidis currently has a warehouse of 13,000m² in Nijar, to store EPS crates. Besides storage, it also distributes, washes and maintains an inventory of EPS crates.
- The company fully manages a fleet of more than 160 temperature-controlled trucks, in order to provide the most efficient and effective services to its customers.
- Logidis distributes around 8,500 full loads a year. It provides its services to all of the companies belonging to the UNIVEG Group, as well as companies dealing with fruit and vegetables and frozen food across Europe.