

UNIVEG TRADE BRAZIL

UNIVEG Trade Brazil was founded in 2013 and started importing fresh produce from UNIVEG companies worldwide as a branch of UNIVEG Katopé Brazil. UNIVEG Trade Brazil is located in São Paulo, near the port of Santos in Brazil.

The subsidiary operates as an independent business unit with high priority on expanding the inter-company business in Brazil and position the UNIVEG Group as a world leader of fresh fruits.

ACTIVITIES

UNIVEG Trade Brazil imports fresh fruits for the Brazilian market: apples, pears, kiwis, citrus, grapes, stone fruit are the most important fruits.

KEY COMPANY FACTS

- Offers year round availability of fruits.
- Logistics are based in the North-East to supply clients at a lower cost.
- Being part of the UNIVEG Group has allowed UNIVEG Trade Brazil to build a close network with regional retailers in Brazil.
- The UNIVEG Group believes in the potential of the Brazilian market and its boosting trend in fruit & vegetables consumption besides its unique climate and land availability to grow quality products in different regions of Brazil. We want to optimize our existence in Brazil as a grower, packer, exporter, importer and a service provider.
- Brazil is an emerging market for UNIVEG that can offer many opportunities to the growing retail business. UNIVEG's global supply from South America and Europe creates a perfect integrated product flow for Brazil.
