COMPANY PROFILE

Bocchi Flower Trade Netherlands B.V. was founded in 1984. Over the past years the assortment of products has extended to include added value products related to flowers and plants.

Headquarters, with a surface of approximately 14,000 m² is based at Bloemenveiling Flora Holland, a flower auction hall in the heart of the Dutch market garden area known as 'The Westland'.

Both other branches are also located in 'The Westland', with a total working area of 34,000 m².

CORE BUSINESS

Bocchi Flower Trade Netherlands B.V. is active in Europe as a processor and trader of ornamental plants, fresh flowers and all kinds of goods relating to garden centres (pottery articles, artificial flowers & plants etc.).

The company has a large direct presence in particular in the Netherlands. All goods are packed according to the requirements of customers, in the company's own packing facilities.

A complete range of flowers and plants of all types and sources is delivered at regular intervals to large supermarket chains and large garden centres everywhere in Europe.

Flowers are carefully selected, composed into bouquets and delivered ready for sale to the large scale retail trade.
