

CHAMPARIS

Cycle of Freshness

COMPANY PROFILE

Champaris is located at the international market in Rungis (France) and is a member of the UNIVEG group. The company is strongly affiliated to the other French UNIVEG entities.

CORE BUSINESS

Champaris was founded in 1969 and specialized in the commercialisation of fresh mushrooms and was responsible for the distribution to the wholesalers.

Today Champaris specializes in the distribution of tomatoes, citrus, melons and other imported fresh produce. Its customer base consists of traders, wholesalers, cooperatives and retail chains.

About 10 staff members are available to ensure continuous performance, handling 20000 tons of produce, mainly originating from Spain, Morocco and Tunisia.