

EXPOFRUT®

COMPANY PROFILE

Established in 1971, Expofrut S.A. is based in the area of the Río Negro and Neuquén valley, located in the Argentine Patagonia. In 2006 it became member of the UNIVEG group of companies.

CORE BUSINESS

- Leader company in Argentina's fresh fruit and vegetables production, packaging and trading.
- Export of fresh fruit and vegetables to Europe, Russia, United States, Scandinavia, North Africa, the Middle East and Mercosur.
- Owner of approximately 20,000 hectares in Argentina, of which about 4,000 hectares in production.
- Owner of 20 plants mostly used for packing and cooling of fresh fruits.
- Commercialisation of more than 250,000 tons of fresh fruit and vegetables per year.
- Employer of approximately 1,700 people monthly, reaching nearly 6,000 employees per month in peak months of high production.
- Collaboration with more than 450 fruit suppliers considered strategic partners of the company.
- Commercialisation of organic products (under the brand Biotree) since 1995 through a.o. the use of beneficial insects, vegetable coverings and natural manure, among others.